AS LONG AS IT LASTS—AND IT WILL LAST A LONG, LONG WHILE

IT is not given to many cars to stand on both the improvements of the new and the long life of the old. Nearly every Pierce-Arrow ever built is still running, and whatever the year or model, there is a dignity about these older cars that is a source of pride to their makers. One can buy a Pierce-Arrow today with the secure feeling that as long as it lasts it will still do itself credit, in looks as well as performance, and that it will last a long, long while.
